TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

A few years ago when a man died the question was asked: "Did he have any Insurance?" But times have changed a great deal since then. One of the first questions asked now when a man dies is how much Insurance did he have.

To get the best Insurance policy on the market, all you have to do is to give me your application therefor and let me have the medical examination made. Now, don't say to yourself that you don't need it, FOR THE HOSPITALS AND CEMETERIES ARE CROWDED WITH PEOPLE WHO SAID THE SAME THING, and at the time they were just as prosperous and just as healthy as you are today.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ernest Alexander spent last week at Hinkle's.

Misses Ellen Lewis and Inez Morris are visiting in Greenwood.

Misses Nannie and Stella Porter spent Monday in Greenville shopping.

Miss Mary Morris is a member of a house party at Cedar Mountain, N. C.

Harrison Edens has sold his photograph gallery to James Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bowen of Norris visited relatives in Wall-halla last week.

Miss Maka Boggs has been spending a while with Miss Mayme Williams near Mt. Carmel church.

J. Cal Jennings went to Columbia last week to carry a lady from Central to the hospital for the insane.

The many friends of Judge and Mrs. J. B. Newberry rejoice to know that she is now convalescing from a severe illness.

Claud Hester says the buttons are placed on the left side of ladies' coats and the right side of men's coats so the coats may be buttoned.

Mr. and Mrs. Remus Henderson of Anderson, spent the week end with Mrs. Henderson's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mack Farmer, near Pickens.

Rev. E. M. Bolding, well known Baptist preacher of the Six Mile section, is attending the Baptist Assembly in Greenville this week.

Mrs. C. N. Wyatt and daughters, Misses Eva, Ethel and Alcen, and son Charles, of Easley, spent Monday with the family Rev. D. W. Hiott.

Mrs. W. A. Cason, of Atlanta, Ga., visited her brother, T. D. Harris, at the Hiawatha hotel last week. Mr. Harris' mother is also on a visit to him.

Mr. James Mauldin and daughter Miss Nina have returned to their home in Birmingham Ala. after an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. Mc Farmer.

Dr. C. W. Smith, a physician and surgeon who has been located at Newry for the past six years, has moved to Liberty, where he will practice his profession.

The friends of Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Wiggins will be sorry to learn that the beautiful home of Mrs. Wiggins' mother, in Nashville Tenn., was destroyed by fire last week.

J. W. Hendricks calls attention in his advertisement this week to the fact that he has added a ten-cent counter to his store and has many baigains on it. Read his ad.

Arthur, the young son of B. A. Morgan of Greenville, was accidentally shot by a playmate one afternoon last week. A .32 calibre pistol ball entered the leg of the lad, but the injury is not serious.

Jesse Morris said he heard we liked beans and Saturday he brought us a peck of as fine beans as we have ever seen. Jess says he has put up eighty cans this summer and expects to put up 100 more.

Chief Nealy and the balance of the street force are doing some good work on the streets of Pickens. We notice, however, that they begin work on some streets and do not finish working the entire street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morris spent some time in Greenville last week. Mrs. Morris has had some trouble with her eyes and while in Greenville had them treated. We are glad to learn that she is much improved.

WHITE CROWN FRUIT JAR CAPS

The newest thing in caps for fruit jars, preventing metal of any kind from coming in contact with contents of jar. Discard your old zinc caps, which may cause poisonous gases, and use White Crown Caps for the protection of your health. White Crown Caps fit any Mason jar; no loss; no spoilage; satisfaction guaranteed; money back if they fail. I have a supply on hand now. See them before they are gone.

Fresh groceries at all times.

HEATH-BRUCE MORROW COMPANY

Pickens, S. C.

Nine young men stood the examination at the court house Friday for a scholarship in Clemson College.

Paul Boggs, a ministerial student of the Presbyterian church, is spending the summer with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Boggs, on Eastatoe and helping in church work in that community. Paul's father, the late Rev. W. K. Boggs, was a minister of great usefulness and we predict for Paul a successful ministry.
